LIBERTY SQUARE MAY 2026

Community News

Welcome to May at Liberty Square. There's no shortage of things to do around Las Vegas this month—from the First Friday Art Walk in the Arts District to weekend finds at the Downtown Summerlin Farmers Market and seasonal events at Tivoli Village. With concerts, pop-ups, and outdoor events happening all over the city, it's the perfect time to get out and enjoy everything Vegas has to offer.

Pizza + Prizes

Chick-fil-A and Dutch Bros gift cards were won, pizza was enjoyed, and 22+ residents showed up and brought the energy. Nights like this are what it's all about.

What Did I Miss?!

What Residents are Saying

Theo

"As someone applying here from out of state I was not sure what to expect. From day one Dylan in the front office was a huge help during all phases of the process. He answered all questions and even went above and beyond in helping secure the right unit. Dylan was very professional and honest throughout the process and made it fairly smooth. As for The property itself is in a great neighborhood with nice views and parks. Townhomes are kept in very good condition."

Local Feature

Black Sheep Vegas

The Black Sheep, owned by Chef Jamie Tran —as seen on Netflix and Top Chef—for good reason. One of our favorite spots to impress a date or treat mom this Mother's Day. Don't miss the Grilled Prime New York Strip, served with thin rice noodles, herb salad, assorted pickles, and a bold crying tiger sauce for dipping. It's the kind of dish that makes the night.

Live Well

Mental Health Month

May is Mental Health Awareness Month—a reminder to protect your peace in a constantly connected world. At Liberty Square, it's easy to unplug, whether that's enjoying quiet time at home or getting outside and connecting with nature. Try setting your phone to airplane mode after hours, taking screen-free walks, or starting your mornings with a few mindful moments—small shifts can help you feel more grounded and centered.
